Congregation Honors Three Members On Simhat Torah — October 19

William Sherman

Evelyn G. Gelman

A. Stanley Gluck

During Services on Simhat Torah, which this year corresponds to Friday, October 19, three members of the congregation will be honored for their service to the synagogue.

A. Stanley Gluck has been named Hatan Torah in recognition of his outstanding service to the synagogue; Evelyn Gelman has been named Kalah Mafteret in recognition of her continuous service to the synagogue; and William Sherman has been named Hatan Bereshit in recognition of his well-known service to the synagogue.

Services begin at 9:15 a.m. A reception and buffet kiddush will take place on the Lower Level following Services in honor of our three honorees and their families.

A. Stanley Gluck

Stanley is Treasurer of Park Avenue Synagogue, a member of the Board of Trustees and the co-chairman of the School Board. He has devoted much of his volunteer time over these past several years assuring the continued well-being of the synagogue.

A graduate of City College of New York with a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree and New York University with a Master of Business Administration (MBA)

An Open Letter To The Congregation

Dear Friends,

Our annual Yom Kippur Appeal, which is now in full swing, is of exceptional importance to the financial well-being of the Park Avenue Synagogue. The funds to be raised are vitally needed in order to keep the cost of membership and Religious School education within the reach of all. This is in accord with the tradition of our religion.

Since our financial plan anticipates a successful appeal as part of a balanced budget, our many programs — religious, educational, social and cultural — as well as planned capital improvements depend upon your full support. Please contribute generously, as this will be our only major fundraising event of the year to benefit the synagogue.

Thank you! We wish you and your family a happy and healthful New Year!

L'Shanah Tovah!

Martin J. Milston

High Holy Days Preparations During Month of Elul

This year the Hebrew month of Elul corresponds to the month of September and it is during Elul that the sound of the shofar is heard daily in the synagogue, signalling the approach of the High Holy Day season.

Also, it is a tradition during the month of Elul for Jews to have their tefillin and mezuzot checked by a scribe. Because the text included in the tefillin and mezuzot is handwritten on parchment, after a while the parchment becomes worn and the letters may become illegible. If you would like to have your tefillin and mezuzot checked, please contact our Assistant Cantor Mark Kula and he will make the necessary arrangements for you to have this done.

Memorial Gift For Parish House Fund Established To Honor Evelyn and Joseph I. Lubin

Martin J. Milston, Chairman of the Board, announces a major gift for the Parish House Fund arranged by Barbara Goldsmith Perry and Frank Perry in memory of Mrs. Perry's parents, Evelyn and Joseph I. Lubin. Mr. and Mrs. Lubin were long time members and leaders of the Synagogue and Mr. Lubin served as a Trustee for many years.

The Memorial is designed to encourage the development of a Parish House Fund which will defray costs incurred by the Synagogue for housing members of the clergy of the Synagogue, retired clergy and for the surviving spouse of any such person.

The Parish House Fund was launched last year by gifts from a number of members concerned with the sharply increased cost of housing on the upper East Side and the fear that such costs might make it difficult to recruit and retain spiritual leaders for the Synagogue and provide for their families.

"We are delighted with this generous gift for the Evelyn and Joseph I. Lubin Parish House Memorial Fund," Mr. Milston said.

"The creation of the Memorial Fund will lighten the burden on the Synagogue budget and give us the flexibility to deal with housing needs as they arise. The conversion of rental housing to cooperatives in our area requires the availability of funds to assure our staff of a place in which to live and to provide for them upon retirement. Because of the necessity of living within walking distance of the Synagogue, our personnel have a limited choice in this high

From Spectator to Participant

The days of August are hot, hazy, humid. It seems as though they will never end. But end they do, and sooner than we think. And when they end, we face not only a new season and a new year, but we are cast in a different role. This has been a spectator summer. We have been witnesses to events run by others. First the political conventions with their speeches, their showmanship, their hoopla. Then, the Olympics. We sat and marveled at the beauty and dexterity of the gymnasts, the speed of the racers, and the grace of the divers. At all these events nothing was required of us, nothing asked, nothing demanded. We were the great watching audience, receiving and absorbing impressions and storing them in our minds.

Now the High Holy Days loom on the horizon. The synagogue will be decorated, festive yet solemn. In a sense a performance is being prepared by the producers. The great difference is that we do not enter the synagogue as spectators to watch and listen. We come to participate in a great and moving religious experience. And the strange thing is that whether it will be great and moving will depend chiefly upon us. We must open our hearts to prayer, to listen to our own inner voices. We are not there to receive impressions. We are there to feel the awe of these days, to sense their mystery and to let them enter our beings and change our lives for the better. We are there to pray, not to listen to prayers. We are there to sing, not to hear the beautiful music. We are there to think, not to listen to another's thoughts. This is the kind of a happening in which there is neither stage nor audience. This is a congregation of Jews who are bound together in a thousand ways - by history, by tradition, by common memory and common hope, and by friendship - who gather together and ask God for wisdom with its theme of repentance and renewal, the Selihot Service, conducted by Rabbi Nadich and Cantor Lefkowitz, takes place on Saturday, September 22 at 10 P.M. Prior to the service at 8:15 P.M., the congregation is invited to a coffee hour, after which Rabbi Wechsler will deliver a lecture on "Psychology, Ontology and the Repentant Soul". And just before the start of the service itself, there will be a choral meditation sung by Cantor Lefkowitz and the Synagogue Choir. Rooted in tradition, the haunting musical motifs of the Selihot Service set the tone of the approaching High Holy Days. Accompanying our Cantor and Choir will be our organist, Neil Robinson.

High Holy Days

The schedule of Services for the High Holy Days and for Junior High Holy Days Services can be found on page 2.

Babysitting will be provided on both days of Rosh Hashanah from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and on Yom Kippur from 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m. for children ages 2 and 3. On both days of Rosh Hashanah, a program will be provided for the younger children, ages 4-7, after the Children's Service and until the conclusion of the Adult Service at 1 p.m. On Yom Kippur, this program will be provided from 12 Noon until 1 p.m.

Parents MUST make advance reservations for their child(ren). Please call the School Office by September 20 in order to ensure a place for your child(ren) in either or both of these programs.

For A Sweet Year

As we celebrate the holiday with family and friends let us not forget our brethren in the Soviet Union. Let us join our fellow Jews, spiritually, and recite the following prayer, written by the Greater New York Conference on Soviet Jewry, as we symbolically dip our apple into honey:

"May it be Your will to grant us a good and sweet year.
May it be Your will to bless Soviet Jews with the sweetness of freedom."

Celebrating Sukkot

On Tuesday and Wednesday, October 9 and 10, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., the congregation is invited to a Sukkah Decorating Party. Come when you can. Come with your children. All are welcome to participate in this joyous mitzvah of decorating the Sukkah.

Make your reservations NOW to eat in the Sukkah. See page 5 for details. Reservations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis and will be acknowledged by mail.

Our Assistant Cantor Mark Kula will be pleased to take your order for your purchase of an Etrog and Lulav. Call him today at the Synagogue Office - 369-2600.

degree, Stanley is a Managing Director of Rothschild, Inc., the American branch of the Rothschild international banking group. A Certified Public Accountant, he is a member of both the New York State Society of CPA's and the American Institute of CPA's.

During the World War II, he served in the Army Air Force in the Philippines and Japan with the Budget & Fiscal Office.

He has been and continues to be involved in Jewish communal activities and organizations. He served as President and then Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Jacob H. Schiff Center, a Conservative synagogue in the Bronx. He is affiliated with the Salanter Akiba Riverdale (SAR) Academy, a modern Hebrew Day School in Riverdale and its predecessor, The Akiba Hebrew Academy, for more than 25 years as an officer and presently as Vice Chairman of its Board of Trustees. He is a former member of the Bronx Division of the United Jewish Appeal and the State of Israel Bonds.

Stanley's wife Anita was honored by the congregation last year as its Kalah Mafteret, in recognition of her service as three time Chairman of the Journal Committee and for her efforts in Jewish communal activities. Their two sons-in-law and daughters, Dr. Harris and Freema Gluck Nagler, an attorney, and Kenneth and Sheera Gluck Perlman, an optician, are also members of Park Avenue Synagogue.

Evelyn G. Gelman

Evelyn is a trustee of Park Avenue Synagogue, a member of its School Board and co-chairman of the annual Passover Wine Sale, a project of Parents Association. She is a past president of Parents Association and has chaired one of the annual fund raising evenings of the congregation, "An Evening with Victor Borge", as well as serving as treasurer for several of the other annual fund raising events. She has been a member of the Ritual Committee and of the Advisory Council and has chaired congregational holiday celebrations and special events.

Evelyn began her professional career as a member of the United Nations Secretariat Staff, in the Department of Conference Services. For the past 20 years, she has served as the Executive Director of the Federal Bar Council, a New York based professional association of two thousand federal attorneys. In addition to her work at the Council, she recently formed Programme Associates, in association with two partners, an organization devoted to meeting and function coordination for the professional communities.

Evelyn's family is deeply rooted in synagogue life. Her late father, Frederick Goldstein, was an officer and trustee of a synagogue on the West Side and her mother, Lillian, is a trustee and active member of the same congregation. The Gelmans — Evelyn and her husband Milton — have been affiliated with Park Avenue Synagogue for 17 years. Their two children, Philip and Melissa, celebrated their Bar and Bat Mitzvah with our congregation.

A native born New Yorker, Evelyn attended Bronx High School of Science, graduated from Barnard College and did graduate work at Middlebury College and Columbia University. She is a member of the Barnard College Alumnae Council, the New York Society of Association Executives and the National Association of Female Executives. She has recently been nominated to have her biography included in the 14th Edition of Who's Who of American Women. She is a member of AMIT (American Mizrahi Women) and The National Council of Jewish Women.

William Sherman

Bill is a Trustee of Park Avenue Synagogue and for the last six years has served as the Chairman of the Membership Committee. He and his wife Annette have been members of the congregation for 23 years, serving on innumerable committees together and adding immeasurably to the vitality of our synagogue.

Bill graduated from St. John's University and its School of Law. He is the senior partner of the law firm, Sherman, Citron & Karasik. During World War II, he served in Air Corps Intelligence.

He has been a lecturer at the New York Credit and Financing Management Association as well as at the New York Institute of Credit.

Bill served as a director of the Credit Fraternity and as a Trustee of the New York Institute of Credit, where he is now an Honorary Trustee. In 1983, he was the recipient of the New York Institute of Credit "Leadership in Credit Education" Award.

He is a member of the Young Men's Philanthropic League and the City Athletic Club.

Bill and Annette have two sons: Jim, a resident in Radiology at St. Vincent's Hospital and Bob, a PhD candidate in Clinical Psychology. Both sons celebrated their Bar Mitzvah with the congregation.

Bill and Annette enjoy their Jewishness. They are supporters of Park Avenue Synagogue and give of themselves whenever called upon. They are also active supporters of the spiritual, social and cultural life of the Jewish people in the United States and in Israel. And this summer they saw a dream come true. They were able to rent an apartment in Jerusalem for a month's vacation, living in the city of cities, among their people.

Hadassah Nadich To Speak At Sisterhood Meeting

Our rebbitzin, Hadassah Nadich, will speak on "Getting In Shape For The Holidays" at an open meeting of Sisterhood, on Tuesday, September 18, at 1 P.M. All the women of the congregation are cordially invited to attend.

With the High Holy Days fast approaching, there is much for all of us to do as well as to think about. Join Mrs. Nadich in her exploration of our tradition and what it offers and asks of us as we begin this season of repentance and renewal.

There will be a question and answer period and refreshments will be served. Remember the date: Tuesday, September 18 at 1 P.M. and BE THERE!

"Rites of Passage" Discussed Over Wine & Cheese

We Jews believe that with a New Year comes new opportunities and with new opportunities comes a chance to develop new friends, new horizons, new ideas.

The Young Couples League invites its former members, new members of the congregation and all those congregants who are looking for new opportunities to join them. Their first meeting of the new season takes place on Monday, September 17 at 8 p.m. Joining them, as speaker of the evening, will be Rabbi Harlan Wechsler who will talk on "Rites of Passage". Wine and cheese will be served.

Mark the date and time on your social calendar NOW and come. You'll like the Young Couples League.

Two Eternal Light Programs Telecast In September

Two Eternal Light television programs, deserving of wide audience viewing, will be shown on Channel 4 in September.

On Sunday, September 16 at 11 a.m. on Channel 4, Martin Bookspan, the noted music critic and commentator, will interview internationally acclaimed violinist Itzhak Perlman in a television program titled "A Conversation With Itzhak Perlman".

Two weeks later, on Sunday, September 30 at 11:30 a.m., The Eternal Light program, "The Ghetto Ten", will be telecast also on Channel 4. This special Jewish High Holiday program graphically portrays a Jewish congregation which has survived in the rubble of a slum.

Don't miss these two programs!

Women Invited To Attend WEG Open Meeting, Sept. 18

The Women's Evening Group invites ALL the women of the congregation to join them at 8 P.M. on Tuesday, September 18 for Wine & Cheese and to hear Brenda Bernstein discuss "The Judaica Explosion: Where It's Coming From and Where It's Going".

At this, the first Open Meeting of the fall season, there will be ample opportunity to renew old acquaintances and to make new ones. Audience participation is definitely encouraged by Ms. Bernstein, herself a collector of Judaica and a gallery owner.

In order to encourage the sharing process, Ms. Bernstein requests that we bring with us a favorite piece of Judaica on that evening, for viewing and discussion.

All in all, this promises to be a delightful evening. Don't miss it!

Meet Nancy Samalin Tuesday, October 9

Parents Association invites all parents and grandparents to join in a discussion with Nancy Samalin on Tuesday, October 9 at 8 p.m.

A disciple of Dr. Alice Ginott, M. Samalin is an expert on the topic of communication, in particular, of communication between parent and child. How many of us are consciously aware of the fact that it is not what we say, but how we say it that gets the response we want? If this is true with adults, how much more true it is with our children.

Plan now to attend this thought provoking evening. There will be open discussion and refreshments will be served.

Holiday Time Is Sharing Time

We like to think of our congregation as an extended family, sharing life's joys and sorrows together. In a city the size of New York, if we at Park Avenue Synagogue can provide the means to accomplish this, then we shall have come far in realizing our goal of oneness with each other.

Do you know that there are members of the congregation who would be delighted to have fellow congregants join them in Breaking-The-Fast after services on Yom Kippur?

The Holiday Sharing Committee can serve as liaison to bring you together. Won't you call Gay Apotheker, Rabbi Wechsler's secretary, during business hours, at 369-2600 and express your preference: to be a host or to be an invitee?

Sharing always makes any event more pleasurable, don't you think?

rent area and the provision of housing will afford security for them and their families. Thanks to the foresight of Mrs. Barbara Goldsmith Perry and Mr. Frank Perry and other devoted members of the Synagogue, we have made a good start toward a long range solution."

Rabbi Nadich added: "It is noteworthy that the gift has been made as a living memorial to Evelyn and Joseph I. Lubin who during their lifetimes did so much for the support of this Synagogue and for so many worthy causes. I hope that others may be inspired to add to the Memorial Fund in remembrance of these respected and beloved friends."

Other contributors to the Parish House Fund in recent months include:

Mrs. Esther D. Greenberg
Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hess
Mr. and Mrs. Morton P. Hyman
Mrs. Yvette Kay
Mr. and Mrs. George M. Shapiro
Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence
Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Seligman
Mr. Gustave Yuder
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zacks

The establishment of the Fund was approved by the Board of Trustees last year. A statement of purpose was adopted at a time governing the use of the Fund. As a matter of policy, income from the Fund will be accumulated during the start-up years and the first priority for use of the funds will be reserved for housing for retired personnel and surviving members of their families.

Cahan Painting Given To Synagogue

"The Torah", a beautiful, traditional oil painting given recently to Park Avenue Synagogue by Nathan Cummings, member of the congregation, and by George M. Shapiro, Honorary President of the Synagogue, can be viewed on the second floor lobby area, outside the Rothschild Library.

The oil painting is by Samuel Cahan, whose prolific output includes not only oils, but also Impressionist landscapes of New York and its environs, portraits (including the official portrait of President Woodrow Wilson), Hebraic subjects and drawings and etchings.

Park Avenue Synagogue thanks Mr. Cummings and Mr. Shapiro for this distinguished addition to the art collection of the synagogue.

Congratulations
